Alabama ONE Announces New Director of Agricultural Lending, Kelley Miller

Tuscaloosa, AL: Alabama ONE is proud to welcome Kelley Miller as the new Director of Agricultural Lending, effective March 3rd.

Kelley Miller has joined Alabama ONE from First South Farm Credit located in Northport, AL where he worked in various positions from Loan Officer to his most recent role of Vice President Branch Manager. Kelley served as Vice President Branch Manager for twelve years during his twenty-one year tenure with the company. Kelley is a graduate of Auburn University where he earned a Bachelor of Science degree in Agricultural Business and Economics. Arriving to Alabama ONE as a sought-after leader, Kelley has served as a mentor for Farm Credit University's Commercial Ag Lending degree program. There, he also continued his education in Commercial Ag Lending and Mastering Sales Magnetism. Kelley will be bringing his vast knowledge in Agriculture and Lending to Alabama ONE to help continue expand Agricultural lending products.

Additionally, Kelley's experiences will benefit Alabama ONE moving forward through coaching, oversight, and leading the direction of Agricultural lending. "I am very excited to bring my years of experience to this amazing team, and now there will be only ONE place to call for Land and Agriculture loans, that's Alabama ONE!" says Kelley.

Chief Commercial Lending Officer, Ryan Stallings, stated, "Agricultural and Rural Land & Timber lending are a core area of focus at Alabama ONE. Kelley brings over 21 years of commercial agricultural lending experience in the West Alabama region. He is experienced in cattle, poultry, row crop, timber, and recreational real estate finance. We are looking forward to expanding our agricultural lending services to our rural members throughout the State of Alabama and believe his hire will enable us to accomplish this goal."
